COMMENTS INVITED ON APPLICATION OF VERIZON SELECT SERVICES INC. TO DISCONTINUE DOMESTIC TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

WC Docket No. 07-133
Comp. Pol. File No. 797

Comments Due: July 11, 2007

Section 214 Application

Applicant: Verizon Select Services Inc.

On May 15, 2007, Verizon Select Services Inc. (Verizon or Applicant), located at 6665 North MacArthur Boulevard, Irving, Texas 75039, filed an application with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) requesting authority, under section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214, and section 63.71 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.71, to discontinue the provision of a certain domestic telecommunications service throughout the U.S.

Verizon indicates that it currently provides an audio conferencing service, called "Verizon Conferencing Service," throughout the country. Verizon explains that Verizon Conferencing Service is a business service that provides voice conferencing capabilities and features that link calls onto a single, interconnected bridge. Verizon specifies that Verizon Conferencing Service includes two conferencing options: Access Now, which is reservationless, and Event Meet, which is operator-attended. Verizon maintains that all but one of its customers have either dropped the service or migrated to other similar services. Verizon states that it now plans to discontinue this service on August 1, 2007, and that it will support its remaining customer through the end of that customer's current contract with Verizon. Verizon asserts that it provided notice of its planned discontinuance to its one remaining customer via U.S. Mail on May 11, 2007. Verizon further asserts that it is non-dominant with respect to the service being discontinued.

In accordance with section 63.71(c) of the Commission's rules, Verizon's application will be deemed to be granted automatically on the thirty-first (31st) day after the release date of this public notice, unless the Commission notifies Verizon that the grant will not be automatically effective. In Verizon's application and notice to its remaining customer, Verizon indicates that it will no longer offer this service on or after August 1, 2007, and that it will continue to provide service to its existing customer through the end of that customer's current contract with Verizon. Accordingly, pursuant to section 63.71(c) and the terms of Verizon's application and notice, absent further Commission action, Verizon may cease to offer service to customers on August 1, 2007, and may terminate service to its affected customer in accordance with its filed representations. The Commission will normally authorize proposed discontinuances of service unless it is shown that customers or other end users would be unable to receive service or a reasonable substitute from another carrier, or that the public convenience and necessity would be otherwise adversely affected.

This proceeding is considered a “permit but disclose” proceeding for purposes of the Commission’s ex parte rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 1.1200-1.1216. Comments objecting to this application must be filed with the Commission on or before July 11, 2007. Such comments should refer to WC Docket No. 07-133 and Comp. Pol. File No. 797. Comments should include specific information about the impact of this proposed discontinuance on the commenter, including any inability to acquire reasonable substitute service. Comments may be filed using the Commission’s Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) or by filing paper copies. See Electronic Filing of Documents in Rulemaking Proceedings, 63 FR 24121 (1998).
